

The Gospel of St Matthew [Part Three]

2020 is Year A, the Year of Matthew

THOUGH Jesus speaks harshly about the Pharisees in the Sermon on the Mount, his judgment is not solely a condemnation of them. The Pharisees are portrayed as a negative example for his disciples, and his condemnation of those who claim to belong to him while disobeying his word is no less severe (Mt 7:21–23, 26–27).

In Mt 4:23 a summary statement of Jesus' activity speaks not only of his teaching and proclaiming the gospel but of his "curing every disease and illness among the people"; this is repeated almost verbatim in Mt 9:35. The narrative section that follows the Sermon on the Mount (Mt 8:1–9:38) is composed principally of accounts of those merciful deeds of Jesus, but it is far from being simply a collection of stories about miraculous cures. The nature of the community that Jesus will establish is shown; it will always be under the protection of him whose power can deal with all dangers (Mt 8:23–27), but it is only for those who are prepared to follow him at whatever cost (Mt 8:16–22), not only believing Israelites but Gentiles who have come to faith in him (Mt 8:10–12). The disciples begin to have some insight, however imperfect, into the mystery of Jesus' person. They wonder about him whom "the winds and the sea obey" (Mt 8:27), and they witness his bold declaration of the forgiveness of the paralytic's sins (Mt 9:2). That episode of the narrative moves on two levels. When the crowd sees the cure that testifies to the authority of Jesus, the Son of Man, to forgive sins (Mt 9:6), they glorify God "who had given such authority to human beings" (Mt 9:8). The forgiveness of sins is now not the prerogative of Jesus alone but of "human beings," that is, of the disciples who constitute the community of Jesus, the church. The ecclesial character of this narrative section could hardly be more plainly indicated.

The end of the section prepares for the discourse on the church's mission (Mt 10:5–42). Jesus is moved to pity at the sight of the crowds who are like sheep without a shepherd (Mt 9:36), and he sends out the twelve disciples to make the proclamation with which his own ministry began, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Mt 10:7; cf. Mt 4:17), and to drive out demons and cure the sick as he has done (Mt 10:1). Their mission is limited to Israel (Mt 10:5–6) as Jesus' own was (Mt 15:24), yet in Mt 15:16 that perspective broadens and the discourse begins to speak of the mission that the disciples will have after the resurrection and of the severe persecution that will attend it (Mt 10:18). Again, the discourse moves on two levels: that of the time of Jesus and that of the time of the church.

THIS WEEK AND LOOKING AHEAD

FR SEAN MURPHY

Of all the parish priests of East Hendred, none was more popular than Fr Sean Murphy. The fifteenth anniversary of his death is at this time and Bill Sheehan has organised a special mass this Sunday (11am). This is in addition to our normal mass times. The celebrant will be Fr David O'Sullivan, parish priest of Wantage.

MUMS ON THE RUN

Next meeting is on Monday (20th January) at 8.15pm at 6 Castle Street, Steventon OX13 6SR. If you are a mum raising children, who would like a bit of time to chat and reflect with other mothers, please come along to these meetings. Thanks for letting me know if you can or cannot attend. Please contact Amanda at physioamanda@btinternet.com

NEXT WEEKEND COLLECTION IN SUPPORT OF OUR CATHEDRAL

Envelopes are available for those who do not have gift aided planned giving envelopes for second collections. This collection is the only support our Cathedral receives from the wider Diocesan family. Please give generously, gift aiding your donation wherever possible.

READERS AND USHERS NEEDED FOR THE 6PM MASS

The 6pm Mass is a popular addition to the services at St Mary's. It would though benefit from some volunteers for reading and ushering. These are not onerous tasks, ushering just involves welcoming at the door, handing out service sheets, and gathering the collection. Reading is just the second reading at the 6pm Mass and the Alleluia. It would be good for these duties to be taken on by those not currently on any rotas, especially those who are candidates for confirmation and their families. If you would be able to volunteer please contact Richard Stone at richardandfiona@hotmail.com
